

2008/2009 Research Prize of the camlog foundation
Entry Form

This entry form for the research prize of the camlog foundation is the administrative basis for the submission of a scientific work by one or several authors. By signing the entry form, the applicants confirm that they will comply with and accept the conditions for participation.

A work will be accepted for consideration by the camlog foundation only if this entry form is completely filled in and signed by all authors. The application form must be submitted along with the work, an abstract, and the curriculum vitae of the lead author.

By their signature, the authors listed below confirm:

- Knowledge of and consent to the conditions for participation in the 2008/2009 research prize project.
- That through this form the authors are assigning to the camlog foundation the right to publish their contribution – after its publication – in its own media, to include it in its bibliography, and to make it available online to its members.
- Should the work be selected by the scientific jury, the award goes to the author indicated below as the “award recipient”.
- The research was performed for the most part in (country)
